

GYM INSTRUCTOR

We rise, we shine, we climb...

We want something different to every other gym: wellbeing for every body. SALT gymnasia at the Woolacombe Bay Hotel is home to a carefully curated selection of scientifically proven equipment from both industry leaders and lesser-known trailblazers. Keiser, Versaclimber and Technogym all feature. We are dedicated in providing exceptional service, extraordinary trainers and coaches to guide, motivate and inspire.

An exciting opportunity has arisen to join our diverse SALT family as a Gym Instructor. The vacancy is for 10 hours per week, with a strong likelihood of additional hours to cover holidays – we are looking for somebody who is 100% passionate about the SALT difference – somebody we can really rely on.

We are looking for a highly driven individual with a good work ethic that is willing to learn and progress in the fitness industry. We are offering a unique opportunity for someone who has either recently qualified or already well experienced.

You will learn how to use and coach one to one, small group, and class sessions on high performance equipment unique to SALT gymnasia. Classes can take place either on the gym floor, in Summit Studio or regeneration space, or even outside in the grounds. We don't believe in limits, so whether you're starting up a brand-new class yourself or instructing one of our existing classes, there's huge scope for smashing your career goals.
